The following hotels are priced between £40 and £75 for the night of the 13th June. Prices for other nights around this date are similar if needed. I have put the hotels in order of value and location to the conference. Further details and booking can be found at www.tripadvisor.co.uk, www.expedia.co.uk, www.opodo.co.uk and www.booking.com along with further hotels for those with bigger wallets (or research budgets).

1. Manchester Ibis Hotel - Charles Street, Manchester City Centre, Manchester, M1 7DG - 0161 272 5000 (The second best located for the conference, in a reasonably quiet area but still near for action for a good night out)
   Nearest Train Station – Oxford Road – less than five minute walk

2. Manchester Ibis Hotel - 96 Portland St, Manchester, M1 4GX - 0161 234 0600
   (Further up from the conference and about a five minute walk. Plenty of things to do near)
   Nearest Train Station – Oxford Road – less than five minute walk

3. Best Western Princess Hotel – Corner of Portland Street and Oxford road
   (Probably the nicest and best positioned out of all the hotels, near to the conference and a good night out. This is a good, big hotel. A little more expensive but prices are available for under £75 through links on Expedia)
   Nearest Train Station – Oxford Road – less than one minute walk

4. Jurys Inn Great Bridgewater Street
   (A nice clean hotel less than five minutes from the conference, in a nice area also and near to a good night out)
   Nearest Train Station – Oxford Road – less than five minute walk

The following hotels are around the Piccadilly area of the city, which is located in the city centre near to Piccadilly train station and about a five to ten minute walk to the conference.

5. Atrium by Bridge Street Apartments
6. Jarvis Piccadilly Hotel
7. Britannia Sachas Hotel
8. The Gardens Hotel
9. Days Hotel
